

PERSONAL.

Mr. W. H. Webb, of Louisville, was in town last Wednesday.

Hon. S. J. M. Major is favorably spoken of for Lieutenant Governor.

Col. Alf. Roberts, of Hardinsburg, Ky., was at the Cloverport Hotel Tuesday.

Our old friend, C. H. Lane, of Garrettsville, Ky., looked in on us last week and reported all quiet in Meade.

Eli Dean shipped one hundred and thirty-six head of fine hogs to Cincinnati, last Wednesday.

Mr. John LaHeist sent us his compliments last week in the shape of two sweet potatoes, one of them weighing nearly seven pounds.

Mr. A. P. Freeman, representing D. H. Baldwin & Co., of Louisville, one of the largest dealers in Pianos and Organs in the West, is at the Cloverport Hotel.

Logan C. Murray, Esq., cashier Kentucky National Bank, Louisville, Ky., paid his relatives here a flying visit Sunday.

Miss Enola Miller, who has been absent for the past two months, we are glad to note, has returned much improved in health.

Hancock Criminal Court is in session this week. Judge Murray, ever prompt at his post, is on the bench.

Mr. Oelze, of the Star Mills, of this place, sent his kindest regards to us last week in the shape of a barrel of the finest flour we have tussled in a long time, manufactured at their mills.

Dr. J. B. Wells, of Elizabethtown, paid our little city a flying visit on last Saturday. He is a prosperous druggist of that place. We were glad to see his pleasant countenance among us. Rumor bath it, that his visit here was not altogether on business, but the may, for ought any one knows, make business of it before he is done.

Mr. F. Walters, Miss Carrie Watkins and Miss Ella Hambleton, express great pleasure and satisfaction in a visit they made to Miss Eliza Brashers, at Union Star. We are not surprised at that, it could not have been otherwise, and one of the party is exceedingly anxious to go back again.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. LaHeist left our town last week to take up their abode in Lewisport, where Mr. LaHeist has gone into the stove and tinware business. We regret very much to give them up. They are quite an acquisition to any society.

Babbage has all kinds of Fancy Neck-Ties.

All kinds of large bills printed at the News office.

A four-horse team ran away last Thursday without hurting anybody or anything.

They had a $15,000 fire in McKenzie, Tenn., on the 27th ult. No insurance.

The yellow fever is generally on the wane in all of the infected districts. The Sunday night's frost sent a general shout of joy all through the South.

Our mother Eve was a brave old lady. Just listen what she said to our dear papa as they left the beautiful garden of Eden. "I don't care a dam."

A Vienna firm is now manufacturing glass slippers. One objection to them is, they won't run down at the heel. Another is, the reflection is too great.

There are thousands of men in this world whom we trust with our lives, our honor and our fame, and yet we won't trust them with our pocket books.

Mr. J. D. Babbage's house is crowded with every kind of literature you want. All of the leading periodicals published in the United States on file and for sale cheap as the cheapest.

We learn from Mr. J. W. Haynes, of this place, that L. G. Smith, proprietor of the Novelty Mills, of Rockport, Ind., on Monday, the 27th ult., failed for $42,000.

William Pigg, of Harrison county, committed suicide because he was swindled out of $192. Cloverport has an old Hogg that has been swindled out of twenty times that much and yet he is do-vial.

The Georgetown Times has found a sweet potato vine with three potatoes at the root, two red Bermuda and a yellow queen. Also a sweet potato bloom which resembled a morning glory bloom.

Geo. Washington and Bond Smith the negro hounds of Louisville have been captured and lodged in jail in that city. Washington is said to be one of the most wicked, profane, dare-devil human beings ever captured.

Solid Facts.

If a friend asks you to endorse for him, always do so "with pleasure," as in no case will you ever have the debt to pay.

If a Saturday customer calls on you, sell him all he wants, for Saturday is sure to come.

If a voluble man, after he has stated his argument, attempts by reiteration to convince you, always believe every word he says, as a doubt on your part might grate on his sensibilities.

Always endeavor to be the last one to enter church, especially if you have a new bonnet or a new suit. You might create a "sensation."

If plain truth will let you out, tell it. If not varnish a little. If truth varnished won't do, prevaricate a little. If prevarication won't do, tell a bald-faced lie. If you are caught, say you were only joking. Everybody will believe you, especially if it is only your ninety-ninth attempt. You are entitled to one hundred trials.
